PLAN YOUR SUMMER ACTIVITIES AT THE 2009 RECREATION EXPO

With summer just around the corner, the community is invited to attend the fourth annual Recreation Expo on Saturday, April 25 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Three Oaks Community Center.

Hosted by the City of Vacaville's Community Services Department, the Expo will showcase what's new and exciting in recreation. Save time, phone calls and gas with this free one-stop shop that gives you a great opportunity to plan your summer schedule, have your questions answered, and register early for most summer classes.

This year's Expo theme is "Ride the Recreation Wave!" Come join in the carnival games, healthy snacks, entertainment, and drawings of chance with the opportunity to win free swim lessons, summer camps, and other great gifts. For more information, call 449-5654 or check out the City website at www.cityofvacaville.com.

Also happening at the same location, date and time is the second annual Health and Safety Expo sponsored by the Vacaville Police and Fire departments. Don't miss out on either of these great free family-oriented events.
