“TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR FUTURE” SEEKS VOLUNTEERS, PRESENTERS

Volunteers and presenters are needed for the first-ever “Take Charge of Your Future” career day event to be held Saturday, March 21 at the Ulatis Cultural Center.

This event will provide an opportunity for professionals working in business, government and education to mentor youth in career choices and life destinations through interactive displays.

For youth, this event will provide an opportunity to meet, learn and experience potential career choices and work experience opportunities. For parents, not only can you learn with your child about future career choices, but there will be information available about programs, scholarships, and financial aid to assist parents and children.

This event is sponsored by the City of Vacaville's Youth Roundtable. The Youth Roundtable is comprised of representatives from the City, area school districts, local businesses, churches and health organizations that serve local youth audiences. The Youth Roundtable meets monthly to discuss related issues.

Registration forms to be a presenter or a volunteer at the “Take Charge of Your Future” event can be found at www.cityofvacaville.com and clicking on the “Career Day – Take Charge of Your Future” link under “Frequently Requested.” Event information for parents, teachers and students can also be found at this link.

“Take Charge of Your Future” will begin at 10 a.m. and continue until 2 p.m. If you have any questions about the event, send an e-mail to careerday@cityofvacaville.com or call 449-5633.
